

Real jobs.
Real support.
Real outcomes.

Inclusive Employment Australia Mental Health Specialist

At ORS, we help people with mental health conditions build meaningful, lasting careers. We focus on your goals, strengths and interests, and partner with employers to create inclusive workplaces where you can thrive.

Why choose ORS?

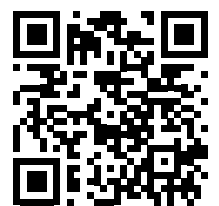

Our person-centred approach tailors support to each individual's strengths, abilities, and goals. We focus on building confidence through customised support, on-the-job coaching, and job design that creates meaningful and sustainable work opportunities.

- + 30+ years' experience in mental health and disability employment
- + 600+ allied health and employment specialists across 25+ sites
- + Strong local employer and community connections
- + Proven success using the Individual Placement & Support (IPS) model - the global gold standard
- + We understand mental health and how to help you succeed at work

Participant-led.
Employer-informed.
Holistic and adaptable.

If you have any questions about your eligibility or about ORS' mental health specialist services, please contact us on 1800 677 432, or you can email us at IEA@orsgroup.com.au.

Scan to learn more