

About OUR Social Groups

ORS social groups provide a supportive environment for teenagers to connect with peers while receiving expert guidance from speech pathologists. The focus is on practising social and workplace readiness and communication skills to build confidence and independence in real-life settings.

What is Social Brew Group?

Our Social Brew – Café for a Day Group gives teenagers the opportunity to complete practical activities and develop key workplace skills. The students will set up and run a mock café.

We focus on:

- > Greeting and communicating with customers and peers
- > Identifying customer needs and serving with confidence
- > Using appropriate workplace language and behaviour
- > Collaborating and problem-solving in a team environment
